"I REPEAT THAT I NEVER CAN AND NEVER WILL VOTE, AND NO EARTHLY POWER WILL EVER MAKE ME VOTE, TO SPREAD SLAVERY OVER TERRITORY WHERE IT DOES NOT EXIST."—HENRY CLAY.

"I heartily concur in all measures which have for their object to regulate the mischief arising from the violation of good faith in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. I am opposed to Slavery in the abstract, and upon principles sustained and made habitual by settled conviction. ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY
OF
THE PEOPLE!
FREMONT AND FREEDOM!
THE MASSES IN MOTION!

If any one has heretofore doubted that the PEOPLE have called for a change of policy by the Administration, and have called for FREMONT to lead them to that change, all such doubts must have been laid aside after seeing the crowd gathered last evening on Market Square to ratify the Philadelphia nominations. The square was half full of people, packed closely together, presenting a sea of humanity such as we have not seen since the great uprising of the people in 1840, and presenting a marked contrast with the meagre gathering which attempted to greet the Cincinnati nominations. THE PEOPLE OF MILWAUKEE WERE ON HAND!

At 7 o'clock, a salute of 32 guns was fired, (one for Kansas,) and Stevens' Band made lively music from the platform. At ½ to 8, the meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers:

ALEX. MITCHELL, Chairman.

VICE-PRESIDENTS:

1st Ward—JACOB MABLEE, J. H. PAINE.
2nd " —A. J. LANGWORTHY, I. A. LAPHAM.
3rd " —JOHN CUMMINGS, L. J. HIGBY.
4th " —IRA E. GOODALL, L. BURNELL.
5th " —J. HUMPHREY, W. A. HAWKINS.
6th " —R. P. HOUGHTON, C. COMSTOCK.
7th " —D. NEWHALL, C. T. BRADLEY.

Secretaries.—E. P. HOTCHKISS, A. H. BIELFELDT.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee on resolutions:

A. FISCH, JR., ALBERT SMITH, J. W. DURAND, J. MURRAY, A. K. WILLIAMS.

The Chairman introduced to the meeting Mr. BROSS, the able and fearless editor of the Chicago Democratic Press, who, a democrat of old standing, has "bearded the Douglas in his hall" at home, for his recreancy. Mr. BROSS made an eloquent speech of some 25 minutes in length, carrying the audience with him throughout, as he depicted the issue, and exhibited his determination to fight it out under the banner of FREMONT. Mr. BROSS was repeatedly interrupted with hearty applause, and at the close with three hearty cheers from thousands of stout lungs, and a vote of thanks for his distinguished services in the good cause.

The Committee on Resolutions, through Mr. FISCH, their chairman, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted unanimously, and with a heart in it:

We, the freemen of Milwaukee, in Convention assembled, do hereby ratify, confirm, and adopt the nomination of JOHN C. FREMONT, of California, for the office of President of the United States.

Resolved, That the People of Wisconsin have had enough of the imbecile, infamous and Kansas-oppressing administration of FRANKLIN PIERCE, and that JAMES BUCHANAN by his cordial adhesion to the Cincinnati platform, is promised, pledged and bound to carry out the ruinous and anti-democratic policy of President PIERCE in the administration of our government.

Resolved, That the nomination of JOHN C. FREMONT particularly appeals to the sympathies of the Great West, and that we have undoubted guarantees of his approval of wise and liberal appropriations from the National Treasury for the improvement of such Rivers and Lake harbors as the commerce and rights of the West justly demand.

Resolved, That the spontaneous uprising of the people, in his behalf, in all sections of the Union, proves the nomination of John C. Fremont to be emphatically the People's nomination.

Resolved, That the people of Wisconsin feel a deep interest in the construction of a Railway to the Pacific ocean, and the election of John C. Fremont to the Presidency will be a guarantee that this grandest of national undertakings would be carried out.

Resolved, That we unfurl our banner to the breeze, inscribed with the words Free Speech, Free Press, Free Labor, Freedom and FREMONT, and under this glorious banner are sure to win a victory for our whole country, and under our gallant leader to open the North Pass and the Golden Gate to a just and truly national administration of the affairs of the Republic.

Resolved, That the only security patriots can have for the maintenance of our Republican institutions, as carried out in the spirit of Washington and Jefferson, is the election of John C. Fremont, and to secure his success we will omit no honorable means that Freemen should use.

It was much to be regretted that Mr. HOFFMAN, the Republican candidate for Lt. Gov. of Illinois, who had been announced, could not be present, but his engagements in the canvass prevented it. This was stated to the Germans in their own tongue by Mr. A. H. BIELFELDT, himself an eloquent and accomplished speaker, who made a few remarks to his countrymen, his clear voice ringing like a bell over the whole concourse of people.

He was followed by Mr. GLATZ, who also addressed our German fellow-citizens, and the loud, full hurras, which greeted both of these speakers showed that the right leaven is at work among the people.

Rev. Mr. FINNEY was loudly called for, and responded in a strain of impassioned oratory on the duty of Freemen in regard to it, which "brought down the house" again and again.

The meeting was further addressed with short, stirring speeches by Messrs. D. Y. KILGORE of Madison, and BYRON PAINE of this city, when it adjourned with rousing cheers for FREMONT, the candidate of the People.

Immediately after the adjournment, a torch-light procession, with some 300 torches, was formed, and passed to the sound of music through the principal streets, bearing a couple of impromptu banners, one bearing the words "FREE PRESS, FREE SPEECH, FREE KANSAS, FREMONT," the other a sheaf of wheat lying down, and being lustily thrashed with a flail.

The procession and the crowd in company cheered the Fremont printing offices as they passed them. Our boys had gone into a private illumination on their own account, and lighted up the name of FREMONT in all the windows with a befitting lustre.

The whole affair was a decided success, and showed that the people of Milwaukee are aroused for ACTION. Let the good spirit work!

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT DEMOCRACY.—Go ye into all the Territories and shoot Slavery into every settler.

From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, June 23, 1856.

The accustomed quiet of our Sunday lives was yesterday disturbed by the Know Nothing guns fired to celebrate the landing of Fillmore from the Atlantic steamer, which arrived at her wharf at about 10 o'clock. The noise was great, but not of enough significance to outweigh the one fact, announced in this morning's papers, that one of the chief Fillmore and Donelson Clubs of this city has just gone over in a body to Fremont and Dayton. Unluckily for Mr. Fillmore, and incautiously for him, who in matters that concern his personal views and pretensions is generally so cautious—he wrote, while yet in Europe, that he would not, in any circumstances, withdraw his name from the canvass, unless desired to do so by those who put him in nomination. As this latter contingency is by no means of probable occurrence—for if those who have manufactured the nomination were to withdraw it, they would be more puzzled than ever Mr. Webster was "where to go." Mr. Fillmore, however much his judgment—I will even say his patriotism—in view of the actual condition of the country, and the inevitableness of the issue between Freedom and Slavery, to postpone which is only to aggravate and embitter, but certainly not to prevent it—might impose upon him the duty of withdrawing his name, and leaving the naked question to be met and settled at once and forever by the U. S.—has so tied himself up by the ill-advised letter written from Europe, as to make it difficult, if not impossible, for him to follow out the bent, possibly, of inclination, and certainly the dictates of duty in such a dilemma. So he is to run, and never to come within sight, even, of his competitors.

Here and hereabouts, in New York and New Jersey, the nominations and the platform of the Bunker Hill Convention, held in Philadelphia, produce enthusiastic assent; and, so far as the telegraph has informed us, alike feeling manifests itself East and West. It would indeed seem impossible, unless all reliance upon the intelligence and honesty of the people be a mere sham, that the platforms of this Convention and that of the Slavery Convention at Cincinnati can be read and reflected on by the voters of the U. S., without an overwhelming preference for our platform, and a like decisive condemnation of that of Cincinnati. The one is the vindication of Freedom, of morality and justice in the intercourse of nations, of peace abroad, of prosperity at home through the active and efficient co-operation of the Federal Government, of a liberal and comprehensive policy as to foreigners, which invites and admits all who seek our shores with honest purpose, into the embraces and the privileges of the domestic hearth—of absolute freedom in regard to religious belief and practice—of the sacredness of the marriage-tie—and a direct disclaimer and condemnation of those twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and Slavery.

The other has two distinctive features, each alike revolting, and each alike in contradiction with human and Divine Justice—Domestic Slavery and Foreign Brigandage—the right, claimed to be guaranteed by the Constitution (!), of extending Slavery wherever we have dominion, and the right to obtain dominion by force, in other words to seize and hold, without consent of the owner, any territory that we may think needful to our own security!

Under a constitution formed "to establish justice, ensure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity"—and in the face of the truth, declared by our great forefathers to be self-evident "that all men are created equal, and endowed by their Creator with the inalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," the Cincinnati Convention proclaims as the platform of democracy at this day, the unlimited right of oppression at home and of brigandage abroad, while ignoring every duty of government to promote the general welfare.—Surely, surely, no humane, just, Christian people can hesitate between these two platforms—no one who believes that God governs the world can lend himself to the support of such principles as those adopted at Cincinnati, and of the men who adopt and identify themselves with them.

> "If there's a God above,
> And that there is all nature cries aloud,
> Thro' all her works—He must delight in virtue,
> And that which he delights in must be happy."

Judge ye, honest men and virtuous women of the U. S., on which side in this canvass virtue is to be found—on that which denounces Polygamy and Slavery as twin relics of barbarism, which proclaims Freedom and the right of free thought and free utterance as the basis of the Republic, and which scrupulously respects the rights of other nations, while exacting like respect for our own, or on that which declares Slavery above the reach of the national arm or legislation in our territories, and, by parity of reasoning, polygamy too—which has no word of condemnation for unparalleled outrages in Washington—nay, on the very floor of the Senate—upon free speech, and in Kansas upon a free press—which upholds and abides by the highwayman's creed proclaimed by Mr. Buchanan, the nominee, at Ostend, that "might makes right"—and which denies to the Federal Government the right or authority to promote the general welfare by making secure for travel and transportation the rivers and lake harbors of our common country.

In all this, nothing is said of the character of antecedents of the respective candidates—the doctrines they are put forward to indorse have alone been looked to, and they are indeed the chief matters for the consideration of our intelligent people. Yet, on the score of character and personal antecedents, what a superiority for the Philadelphia nominations! Our standard bearer, unsullied by the contamination of political intrigue, a young, fresh man,—the founder of his own fortunes, self-poised and self-relying, yet never selfish—who has stood aloof from all tampering with or from party leaders, and at the moment of his nomination as free from personal commitments, is as well known, as to future arrangements in the event of his success, as his antagonist was believed to have been committed, again and again, three or four deep, for every office, in case of his success; a brave, prudent, truth-telling, and an unambitious man—while of Mr. Buchanan, it must be admitted that the soil of deliberate and wilful calumny rests upon his name, in the charge he fathered and circulated about the bargain between Mr. Clay and Mr. Adams; that in the canvass in Pennsylvania between Mr. Clay and Mr. Polk, he stained his name by the declaration of Mr. Polk being a good Tariff man, knowing him not to be so in the sense in which the words were spoken and received; and lastly, after accepting the Cincinnati platform so unreservedly as to merge his own identity, which platform asserts the universal right of taking by force whatever the nation thinks needful to its security, he puts himself forth as for preserving peace with and respecting the rights of other nations!

Between two such men, and two such platforms, there cannot, one may hope, be serious doubt as to the choice the people will make.

The Prairie du Chien Courier—long a republican paper, hoists "Buck and Breck" colors.—The cry is still they come.—Madison Argus.

The Courier has never been a "Republican" paper, and the Argus knows it. Under its former proprietors it opposed the corrupt Barstow dynasty, but did it as a democratic or independent press.

CAN'T STAND IT.—Hon. LOT M. MORRILL, of Augusta, Chairman of the Maine Democratic State Committee, and President of the present State Senate, has notified his colleagues that he cannot go either Buchanan or the platform on which he stands.

The "Atlas," German Republican Paper—Papers for the Campaign.

MR. DOMSCHKE, the able and fearless editor of the Atlas, published in this city, has made arrangements to issue his paper twice a week during the coming campaign. He will furnish seven copies for $5,00, 15 copies for $10,00, or 25 copies for $15,00, for 4 months, beginning with the 15th of July. We make this statement in answer to numerous enquiries from persons in the country who desire to obtain a good German paper for circulation.

And in answer to several inquiries as to whether we intend to publish a Campaign Paper, we reply that the rates for our Weekly Edition, ONE DOLLAR per annum in advance, are so low that it is absurd to talk of anything lower. We shall be glad to extend the already large circulation of our Weekly Sentinel till it reaches every hamlet and fireside in the State, and those who think we are doing good service to the cause, will aid us in reaching them.

Land Grabbers Convention.

A large number of our old friends of the R. R. U. R. Co., with some of the leading Barstow politicians, have have had a re-union here lately. We apprehend that they are laying their wise noddles together to consider the most speedy and effectual method of getting a grab at the late grant of lands to this State. Where their meetings have been held, and what they have decided on, we have not as yet discovered. One thing at all events, the gathering shows, that the vultures are preparing to descend, and it would be well for the constituents of the various members of the present legislature to strengthen the backbones of their representatives for the trials of the extra session. It will require some firmness on the part of those not endowed remarkably in that essential, to resist the appliances which will brought to bear in order to place that grant under certain, not very salutary influences. —State Journal.

There seems little doubt that the September session of the Legislature will be a stormy one, as the various railroad interests will be on hand in full force. There is still less doubt that a strong effort will be made to turn the land grant into a channel which was not contemplated by its movers; but we think that an arrangement may and will be made, by which the benefits of the grant may be made to come to companies within this State, without regard to their termini upon the lake, or rather having special regard to the claims of each locality.

RATIFICATION AT MINERAL POINT.—On the reception of the news of the nominations at Philadelphia, there was a gathering of the people at Mineral Point, where Dr. WILBER, (formerly a democrat) Judge JACKSON and Cyrus Woodman (also a democrat) spoke; resolutions were adopted, ratifying the nominations, and a Republican Association was formed. The Tribune says:

The meeting adjourned, giving six hearty cheers for Fremont and Dayton.

If this first meeting of the campaign in Mineral Point, is an indication of what is to follow, the 4th of November will find some five Republicans "about these diggings."

PRESTON S. BROOKS ON THE STUMP.—Preston S. Brooks has taken the stump in favor of the platform and the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention. The Charleston Standard in advertising to a ratification meeting says:

The Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, Hon. James L. Orr, and Hon. P. S. Brooks, and others will address the meeting.

Douglas and Brooks are admirably fitted to each other, and they truly represent the principles of the Border Ruffian Democracy.

PUZZLED.—The News is in a quandary. It cannot understand how the general union of sentiment and action of most of the presses of this city has been brought about. Such an idea as a union for a great principle is too much for its comprehension. It understands how presses in its own party are "choked" and bought, and therefore tries to think that it is so on our side. Innocent, inexperienced News!

From an Oswego Correspondent.

OSWEGO, N. Y., June 20.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The upper lakes are sending down a perfect avalanche of produce about these days. Oswego Harbor is crowded to its utmost, and steamers, propellers, and sail vessels lay six and seven deep this morning at some of the docks. The piles of merchandise are enormous, and warehouses are daily emptied and refilled with freight and produce. On no former occasion has this city presented such an array of Canada steamers and propellers. Nor less than five are under my eye at this moment. The Tinto, Champion, Moira, Lord Elgin, and Chief Justice Robinson.

The trade with Canada is largely on the increase, and especially with Hamilton and Toronto. The Collingwood Route is doing a great business and is adding much to the value of that city, as an important point in the Upper Province. Two large steamers form a daily line to Toronto, and from thence by railroad to Collingwood on Georgian Bay, where the steamers are found ready for Muckinaw, your beautiful city, and Chicago. The saving of distance for freight and passengers, is nearly a thousand miles or at least eight days, and if time is money, in addition to the low price of fare, it must offer great inducements both to shippers and passengers.—But business men understand these things, and should do so, when their pecuniary interests are so largely involved. The West, especially Milwaukee and Chicago, are deeply interested in quicker and cheaper modes of conveyance East, and both of you pay a heavy per centage on freight, which the opening of new and more prompt modes of communication will of course largely reduce.

Oswego has new and improved facilities for freight and storage, which may not be wholly understood. The Elevators here can store nearly three million bushels of grain, and the warehouses have an almost unlimited extent of room for freight. But with all the unprecedented rush of business here this season, there has been but very little detention, and freight has passed East and West with extraordinary rapidity. Day and night has found the Forwarders in this city at their posts, and never has business been dispatched with more energy and promptness, than in Oswego this spring. A new iron bridge is now being thrown across the river which divides this city; and above it, the bed has been excavated to admit vessels above the bridge and thus enlarge the capacities of the harbor. Oswego is in this way increasing its facilities for business, and preparing for ultimately doing all the East or West may demand, and this in ten years, promises to be double that of the present hour.

A WESTERN MAN.

CONSOLATION FOR NORTHERN DEMOCRATS.—Gov. Wise, of Virginia, has been making a speech at a Buchanan ratification meeting at Richmond. He was eloquent over the results that would follow the election of Buchanan. He said it would insure the admission of Kansas into the Union as a Slave State, and at least treble or quadruple the price of negroes in Virginia, by opening up a new and extensive market. Virginia will be nearly unanimous for Buchanan.—Since they have seen the platform, and Buchanan's announcement that he was "no longer simply James Buchanan" but the representative of those pro-slavery and filibustering resolutions, the Southern Know Nothings are abandoning their organization and go in for the Cincinnati ticket.

Northern Doughfaces—"Democrats" of the Douglas & Pierce stripe—here is an object worthy of your aspirations! Vote for Buchanan and Breckenridge, and raise the price of niggers in Virginia!—Madison Journal.

LONG TIME TO WAIT.—The editor of the Oshkosh Courier is complaining of the present mail arrangements between Chicago and that city, and says that they will remain contented till after the election of "Old Buch." Certainly that is very clever in them, and shows that they will have patience that will outlast their mortal career.—Wisconsin.

☞ We can't quite see the propriety of celebrating our independence this year. If we were not slaves to the South, with the lash and gutta percha well laid on, we should favor a big rejoicing; but as it is, we go for sending the powder to Kansas before it is used.—Wisconsin Mirror.

How it is Received.

The nominations of Fremont and Dayton have been received throughout the North with a g at ification and enthusiasm which have even transcended our anticipations. Nor is the jubilant feeling confined to the strictly so-called Republican press. The ability and high personal worth of the candidates are acknowledged by the more respectable papers of the opposition.

We copy from the National Intelligencer, a paper whose high character for veracity and dignity will add force to its remarks:

"What we say, however, of the unexpectedness to us of Col. Fremont's nomination is not intended to convey any disparagment of that gentleman himself. The fact is, though full young to be brought forward for the Presidency, he is a man of high qualities, modest, wise for his years, self-reliant, brave, collected and calm amid danger. He has encountered trials and conquered difficulties which few men could have coped with successfully. His victories have been over the rigors of nature, in their sternest aspect—in the bottomless snow-drifts of desert and untrodden mountains. In the hardy pursuits of the explorer, few men have perilled as much or suffered as much as Col. Fremont. In this path of duty and distinction he early excited our admiration and interest. He served, it is true, a brief space in the Senate of the United States; but his yet short life has been so largely spent in the intrepid adventures of the wilderness that he is comparatively unknown as a politician.

"In saying this much in justice to Col. Fremont we at the same time explain the reasons for the surprise with which his prompt nomination struck us."

The following is from the New York Independent, the most influential religious paper in the country:

"Since our last issue we have had opportunities to satisfy ourselves as to the position of Col. Fremont on the great question at issue in the Presidential election, and we feel authorized to assure our readers that there is no room to "doubt the thoroughness and inflexibility of his opposition to the spread of Slavery." On this point he is as resolute as Banks or Sumner, Chase or Seward.

"Although the modest bearing of Col. Fremont does not at once suggest the iron will of Gen. Jackson, yet it soon becomes evident that he possesses that quiet depth of principle which gives real strength to character. A man of evident sincerity, he is also a man of perfect self-control. His life bears witness to the inflexibility of his resolution and to his chivalric enthusiasm, in whatever cause or service he may engage his powers. Now that he has been so honorably and unanimously nominated at Philadelphia, men of religious principle who oppose the extension of Slavery may unhesitatingly give him their confidence."

The following from the Cincinnati Gazette of Saturday will be read with great interest:

"A German Fremont meeting is to be held tonight at the Assembly Rooms on Court-street.—Charles Reemelin, Judge Stallo, F. Hassaurek, and other prominent Germans are announced as speakers.

"The 'Daily Republicaner' has hoisted the name of Fremont. The 'Daily Volksblatt' also warmly supports the platform and ticket. The 'Hochwarchter and the Zangeitung,' weekly German papers, with a very large circulation in all the Western States, also support the ticket. The only German paper in the city which supports Buchanan is Volksfreound, the organ of the Catholics."

The New York Courier & Enquirer says, speaking of the contemplated ratification meeting:

"The meeting is to be held in the Tabernacle—at least, nominally so; it were idle to hope that even that vast edifice can admit within its walls more than a small portion of those who will assemble to do honour to him who is first in the hearts of the people. The nomination of Fremont excites so enthusiasm that promises to be checked by no obstacle that shall impede his march to the Presidential chair of the United States. A man of the people—no hackneyed politician or time-serving demagogue—a plain, straight-forward man, who discharges his duty and vindicates the truth, and without fear or favor—the nominee of the people and Convention represented—his simple virtues excite the warm admiration of all classes in the community, and they hasten to join his standard."

Further News by the Atlantic.

The London Morning Star (organ of the Manchester men) has an admirable editorial setting forth the merits of the dispute in respect to Central America. As to Mr. Crampton, the Star thinks that to involve some fifty or sixty millions of people, of the same race, language and religion, in desperate and deadly strife, in order to avenge a Crampton, is too great an absurdity to be for a moment entertained. Nay, indeed, it is pretty clear, that like the removal of one of those small insects which in tropical climates burrow under the skin, and irritate the whole surrounding flesh, this gentleman's expulsion from the United States will serve greatly to allay the inflammation which his presence has produced.

The reports from the corn districts of France not affected by the inundations are still very promising; and should the blooming season, now commencing, pass off well, there is good hope that, notwithstanding the immense destruction occasioned by the floods, the corn crop throughout France may not fall very much below an average.

It is reported in Berlin that Prussia and Sardinia have both demanded to be admitted into the commission for reorganizing the Danubian principalities, and that the demand has been acceded to. It was difficult to refuse Prussia, in her quality of a great German Power, interested in States bordering the Danube. Sardinia was therefore admitted to maintain the equilibrium on the two sides of the Western Powers.

Letters from Milan state that the Austrian Government has resolved to erect the Lombardo-Venetian Provinces into a kingdom of Upper Italy, and to place a prince of Italian birth—Grand Duke of Tuscany, who is also Arch-Duke, on the throne. To this determination the Cabinet of Austria is said to have been brought by its anxiety to neutralize the growing popularity of Piedmont.

RAILROAD CELEBRATION AT BEAVER DAM.—By the following from the Beaver Dam Sentinel it will be seen that ample preparations are being made for a grand Railroad celebration on the coming "Fourth:"

GRAND RAIL ROAD CELEBRATION.—The Committee having in charge the celebration in honor of the completion of the La Crosse & Milwaukee Rail Road to Beaver Dam, met at the office of Messrs. Smith & Ordway, on Monday evening.—Arrangements were made for a grand celebration, committees appointed, and a general invitation is to be extended to the citizens of the State. A large deputation from the Military and Fire Companies in Milwaukee are to be here. This will be the largest and most enthusiastic gathering ever witnessed in Beaver Dam. Grand Military and Fireman's Balls are to be given in the evening; and a splendid exhibition of fire works will take place. Milwaukee papers will confer a favor on this community by giving notice of this celebration; and so will papers throughout the State generally.

Our City.

In every direction around us we see unmistakeable evidence of activity and prosperity. Our streets are filled with the teams of our farmers now employing their short leisure between seed time and harvest in disposing of their surplus produce, and laying out the proceeds in creature comforts. New dwellings and stores are springing up like mushrooms, and those commenced last fall are receiving the finishing touch. The brick block, on the corner of Second and Main Streets is nearly finished, and presents a really beautiful appearance. The massive foundations nearly opposite the Lewis House gives promise of a superstructure that will eclipse all previous architectural efforts in this latitude.

The spire of the Presbyterian church is rapidly approaching the clouds, and the substantial and commodious building to which it pertains will not only be an ornament to our city, but will show that in our prosperity we are not unmindful of our obligations to the Giver of all Good.—Fond du Lac Herald.

PROPRIETORS.—We notice that the old Loco Foco prophesiers are out again. Some of them concede to Col. Fremont the electoral vote of three States, while others more stingy, only allow him the vote of a single district. When Gen. Harrison was nominated in 1840, they allowed him the vote of but one State, Vermont, and they were scarcely more liberal with Gen. Taylor, yet both of those gentlemen were triumphantly elected, as they may find to be the case with Col. Fremont. "Let not him that putteth on the armor boast as him that putteth it off."—THE PEOPLE INTEND TO ELECT COL. FREMONT AS THEIR PRESIDENT.—Galena Advertiser.

TO EXCHANGES.—Some of our exchanges in noticing the new name of our place, have stated that the name was changed from Newport to Kilbourn City. That is wrong. Newport is a village a mile and a half down the river; and our place never had a name till it took the name of Kilbourn City. We dated our paper Newport, because we were in the town (not village of Newport. We hope our exchanges that have made the mistake will correct.—Wisconsin Mirror.

The Republican Nomination.

The Republican Convention, now in session in Philadelphia, has nominated John C. Fremont of California for the Presidency. Col. Fremont, although comparatively a young man, fills a most important page in the recent history of this country. Bold, adventurous, prudent and skillful has been his career as one of the pioneers of civilization beyond the Rocky Mountains, and although suffering privations and hardships almost unknown to humanity, he has evinced the greatest coolness and courage under them all, and has so conducted himself through every peril—civil and military—as to challenge to day the admiration and confidence of a great and powerful party, in so far as to be its standard-bearer in the political struggle before us.

The manner in which that nomination will be received by the country at large will be determined by the future; but be the development what it may, the Republican party can congratulate itself upon having presented a clean man, free from all the isms and cliques which now disturb the harmony and safety of the Union. Mr. Fremont is a safe man, a strong man, and if wise counsels prevail, the good of the country consulted, and the opposition to Slavery Propagandism should unite its strength, he will be a successful, and our free and glorious Union will be once more, and we trust forever, placed beyond the reach of political demagogues and time-servers, who, to promote their own elevation, have boldly struck at the root of liberty, not only of person, but also of speech and debate.

Buchanan and Breckenridge Endorsed by the Border Ruffians.

June 11.—Intelligence was received in Lecompton, a Border Ruffian town, of the nomination of Buchanan and Breckenridge by the Cincinnati Convention, a meeting was immediately called to ratify the nomination. Eli Moore, a Border Ruffian, was chosen President, and Sam J. Jones, the celebrated bogus Sheriff of Douglas county, one of the Vice-Presidents of said meeting. Speeches were made endorsing the nomination, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That we have entire confidence in James Buchanan and John C. Breckenridge, and believe them to be the best men who could have been selected as the exponents of the principles of the platform adopted by the Cincinnati Convention, and noble standard bearers who will rally to themselves and their platform all Union loving men and true Democrats.

Another resolution endorsing the leading acts of Pierce's Administration, and complimenting Stephen A. Douglas was adopted by the meeting. A Democratic ratification meeting was also held in Westport, Mo., and Buchanan and Breckenridge were fully endorsed by the Kansas banditti of that town.

A CHANGE.—The following from the speech of Mr. Wells, of California, at the Philadelphia Convention, is full of force:

Time was when the sovereignty of the general government in the territories of the United States was admitted by all, questioned by none. In the old articles of confederation there was a clause, no doubt originated by the "strict construction" school of that day, that no power was to be exercised by the confederacy except such as was expressly given. There was no provision made for territorial legislation, yet the ordinance of '87 was passed, prohibiting slavery in all the territories then belonging to the United States; and one of the first acts of the first Congress organized under the constitution, was the re-enactment of that ordinance.

The power to make all needful rules and regulations for the territories covers the case under the constitution, but the Latter Day Saints—the American prophets of democracy—have now discovered that the ordinance of 1787, the act of Congress, re-affirming it, and all the legislation on the subject down to the Missouri Compromise, was unconstitutional. What we have to do is to dig up the ordinance of '87, and re-establish the doctrine of the sovereignty of the nation in the territories of the nation.

OF DIT.—That John Van Buren is about to marry a young lady recently returned from Europe—the only child of a wealthy Senator of South Carolina, lately deceased. Prince John will thus become a large slaveholder.—N. Y. Mirror.

STEAMER SULTANA WRECKED.—By the propeller Troy, which arrived here last evening, we learn that the steamer Sultana, running between Green Bay and Buffalo, went ashore on the north end of Fox Island, during the prevalence of a dense fog, on the night of Wednesday last.—When she struck, a portion of her machinery tumbled down, striking the engineer, Patrick O'Brien, and nearly killing him. He lay insensible until he was taken up the next day. He received a severe wound in the temple, from a falling beam, and also a severe wound in the left arm. She is on a rock, in about six feet of water, and was scuttled to prevent her pounding. Her hull is sound yet, but her machinery is badly broken and sprung. She is owned by Geo. Thompson, of Cleveland.

The Troy brought down her passengers, some fifty, O'Brien, and a few of the deck hands. The balance of the crew are on the hunt.

The Troy left Manitou Islands Saturday. Strang was alive then, and it is believed will recover.—Det. Trib.

PROPELLER BAY STATE.—This vessel belonging to the Ogdensburgh line, which sank in our harbor some time since, is all right again and sailed from this port on Tuesday evening. Capt. Keating, of the Cleveland, who has had charge of this line and who is one of owners of the propeller, is a man of great energy and is entitled to credit for having her straightened so soon. So is G. S. Weeks, who raised her from the bottom of the lake, and brought her in, and to are Messrs. Jordan & Alcott, of the Chicago Dry Dock for repairing her. The agents of the Company, in this city, Mather & Co., will get thanks enough without our sprinkling of it. Success to the Ogdensburgh line.—Chicago Tribune.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, JUNE 26.

BEFORE CLINTON WAINWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Peter Simpson drunk, fined $1 and Daily Carter charged with assault and battery, case dismissed for want of prosecution. A warrant was issued against Jane Doe, white sister of John Doe who surpoena charging her with disorderly conduct.

Valentine M Cleveland was brought down from Jail by Policeman Garland, to be examined on a warrant charging him with obtaining a quantity of clothing, from P H Hoffman by means of fraudulent pretenses. The case was continued to July 2d, at 10 A M and the defendant required to give bail in the sum of $500. In default of the bail he was taken back to Jail. Abner C Knapp was brought down from Jail, charged with a larceny. The prosecution asked for a continuance of one week assigning as their reason that the principal witness for the State had been smuggled away by the defence, the case was continued to July 3d for examination. Mr Warren, who appeared for the prisoner, denied the charge of smuggling made by the District Attorney. The bail was fixed at $300, and in default the prisoner was committed back to jail.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY EXHIBITION.—The exhibition at Young's Hall yesterday was not equal in abundance of entries to some we have had owing to the very unfavorable weather, but there were many very beautiful flowers and some large collections. Messrs Clifford, Ferguson, and James, displayed an elegant variety of roses, verbenas, pansies &c. Dunlap had a fine collection of plants and flowers, and the contributions of Messrs Hollow and others were worthy of particular notice. There were several baskets of strawberries large and luscious looking as we have ever seen in the state.

Miss Green exhibited some very handsome specimens of wax flower work.

SPAAR was on hand with samples of his vegetables well grown and healthy, and Messrs Goodnow & Sherburne showed several baskets of ripe raspberries.

One of the principal features of the occasion, among bouquets, was a very large one—a wilderness of fine flowers, of various kinds with the name of Fremont wrought in a delicate white flower very ingeniously.

OLE BULL COMING!—By the announcement in our advertising columns it will be seen that the world-renowned Violinist Ole Bull will give one Concert in our city on Monday evening next, in Young's Hall. He is accompanied by ADELINA PATTI the young sister of Madame STRAKOSCH, who will be remembered as an excellent of very remarkable promise, by Rose the pianist, and others whom we have no seen. The Chicago Democrat says of the party

OLE BULL'S GRAND CONCERT.—We refer our readers to the announcement of Ole Bull's grand Concert, which takes place to morrow evening, assisted by Adelina Patti, Mr. Strakosch and the Young Misses Morino, the Baritone, full force of the great Cornet Player and Both the talented Parisi, proving, altogether one of the greatest combinations of talent that has ever visited this city.

Adelina Patti, the prima donna of the troupe is the greatest musical prodigy of her age. Scarcely yet fourteen years old, she has achieved the reputation of a great artiste, and her public performances have been a series of triumphs. Her voice is a pure soprano of a delicious quality, true rich equal firm, of vast compass, and under perfect control. Her execution is not merely correct, but has a passion for sweetness and power, a richness of sound and a degree of spirit worthy the greatest vocalist of the age. Herr Schreiber, the great Cornet a piston player, Marino, the Baritone, and Both, the Pianist complete this Troupe one of the most perfect we know of, and entitled to the liberal patronage of all our concert going public.—Chicago Press

THE METROPOLITAN HOUSE.—Another first class Hotel has been added to the many fine establishments for which Chicago is justly celebrated. We refer to the METROPOLITAN, just opened by Messrs Gilman & Dixon who were for a long time the proprietors of the City Hotel of Hartford Conn. House which had the reputation of being one of the very best hotels in the east—The Metropolitan is situated in Randolph street in the very heart of Chicago is elegantly fitted up, and finely furnished from top to bottom the uppermost rooms being equal in all respects to those on the floor below. The tables, we are told, are of the very first class quality and the hotel is in every respect a first class house. It is also a large hotel, with one exception, in Chicago. From our personal knowledge of the proprietors we can cordially recommend this house to our friends as one of the best hotels in Chicago.

SALE OF LOTS.—The following is a list of lots sold by Caleb Wall yesterday at a tuition sale held by him in Murray's Building. The balance of the lots will be at private sale until July 1st on same terms, after that they will be withdrawn from sale entirely

NEW SYSTEM OF GRADING.—In one part of Harlow Street, a new system of grading, &c., is going up, is being adopted, the first material dumped on the street is on course, and upon this is thrown gravel or dirt. The whole 12 feet Ward is in the most filthy condition all year, worse than we have seen it for four years, this state of the alleys, gutters and yards, with the hot weather, will almost certainly be productive of disease.

THE DAY OF WONDERS COME.—To day Col Wood opens his remarkable collection of large and small bread and long, smooth and rough oddities, marvels, phenomena curiosities, &c., to the people of Milwaukee at Young's Hall. He warrants every piece of goods precisely as represented and if it does not turn out so, he can tell you why. Doubtless crowds of our citizens will go to see them. Experience does the apple, curiosity has been a fall of her descendants, and there are a good many of such here and hereabouts.

MORE NICE THAN WISE.—In the Police Court yesterday, the parties to a suit were about to have a trial when the defendant's counsel having examined the complaint, observed that the statute of limitations had since was omitted and moved to dismiss the suit on that merely technical, ground. The result was, a new complaint was sworn to, and the suit proceeded. Twelve dollars and twenty five cents are not quite all—lawyers discover a difference.

PAVING IN THE FIFTH WARD.—A portion of Ferry street is being paved with limestone, to the great improvement of the street. The present Aldermen in the Fifth Ward are doing some good. Their advent to office relieved the Ward of an incubus which was serious by injurious to the property holders there.

TREES DYING.—The Madison Patriot notices the fact that several of the trees in the Capitol Park are dying. Our attention has been called to a like mortality among some of he finest young trees which border our streets—elms, for the most part. Several of them after having started out with full foliage, have withered and died. Can any one tell the reason?

VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1856. NEW SERIES.

The Meadow Gate

BY CHARLES MAIN.

The blue bell peeps beneath the fern
The moor its purple blossom yields—
The wreath full six days' work to earn
A ramble 'mid the woods and fields.
There is an hour to silence dear,
An hour for which a king might wait;
It is to meet when no one's near,
My Mary by the meadow gate.

When love leaps res the lit ner's breast,
How swift he speeds from spray to spray:
How wing is of his his woodland nest,
For hidden from the keep of day.
Would such a nest were mine sweet lot!
Would I might but to some dear one's mate!
I'd ask to share no lowly cot,
My Mary by the meadow gate.

There is a tide the streamlet seek,
A fad nale from the coast it went,
And into short music breaks
When from the vale the sea appears.
Oh! twenty cities are every less
Would wander long and linger late,
One happiness, at last to meet
My Mary by the meadow gate.

KNOWLEDGE OF LANGUAGES.—Even as a hawk flieth not high with one wing, even so a man reacheth not eer efficiency with one tongue.—Roger Ascham.

USEFUL KNOWLEDGE.—Much which passes in the world for knowledge is but a slight and trivial thing; and man's being so eager and industrious in the quest of it, is like sweeping the house, raising the dust, and making a great ado, only to find pins.—Dr. South.

SELF-KNOWLEDGE.—If amidst all your other studies you do not learn to converse and commune with your own selves, whatever you know, or rather, whatever you imagine you know, I would not purchase it at the expense of a straw.—Archbishop Leighton.

☞ Dickens has his thrust at the huge dry-goods bales which women make of themselves now-a-days, in the last chapter of Little Dorrit. He speaks of a countess who was secluded somewhere in the core of an immense dress to which she was in the proportion of the heart to the overgrown cabbage.

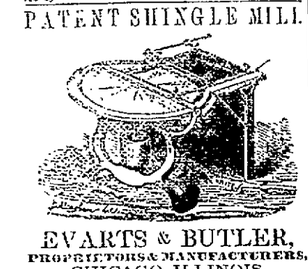
PATENT SHINGLE MILL.



EVARTS & BUTLER,

PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES the Mill its superiority, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction (with regard of execution) and the flexibility of the shingle when the rebated part of the saw, that it may be ground a little deeper as to cut away but little of the wood.

The shingles now made with this mill sell in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

F. M. LANE'S

PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.

Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work has long been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will rapidly turn from the lighter and most opposite tints to the yellow color of the oil itself; the change being the more rapid as the paint is excluded from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a sufficiently long experience in its use, can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the purest white, resembling enamel or porcelain, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Hotels, &c., whilst in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other paints. It possesses superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

Also, Plain and Ornamental Painting, decoration of Private Dwellings, Churches, &c., Sign and Fancy Painting. F. M. LANE, 82 Spring street,
